

Brandon Creative Forum presents

Saturday 22 September

from 2.30pm (finale 7.30pm), Market Hill, Brandon

Market Hill will be taken over with interactive musical activities and themed stalls for all the family to enjoy. There will be surprise performances from a variety of musical acts including community choirs and orchestras. After the sun goes down the Town hall will once again become the canvas for a visual extravaganza including a finale musical performance commissioned especially for Brandon that you won't want to miss.

Come along to enjoy the atmosphere, bring a picnic or enjoy local food stalls, and get involved in the musical madness, there will be something for everyone!

From the people who brought you Ferry Tales and last year's Fire and Flint festival join us for Musical Mayhem, a music festival with a difference.

Supported by

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

MARKET PLACE